

SHORT BIO
Cekli Setya Pratiwi, SH.,LL.M.,M.CL., Ph.D Candidate

Cekli Setya Pratiwi is a Ph.D Candidate of the IHRP at Mahidol University. She hold an LL.M. degree from School of Law Utrecht University, and a Master of Comparative Law of J Reuben Clark, Brigham Young Univeraity. She is a senior lecturer at Law Faculty of University of Muhammadiyah Malang. She has been invited as a speaker at various international and national conference. Since 2012, She has been engaged as a trainer and an organizer of the annual program of Master Level Course on Syariah and Human arranged by PUSAM UMM, collaborated with the ICLRS - U.S.A and the Oslo Coalition on Human Rights - Norway. In several years, She participated at a training program of "Religion and The Rule of Law" in Myanmar, Vietnam, Beijing, and Jakarta invited by the International Global Engagement (IGE). Her research experiences are "Religious Freedom in Indonesia Using UPR Approach" sponsored by IPPFORB and the APHR (2020); "The Root Causes of Hate Speech in Malaysia" worked with Article 19 London. Her most recent publications are "Blasphemy Law as a Structural Violence: A Challenge for Maintaining Sustainable Peace," publishe by De Gruyter and "Bridging the Gap Between Cultural Relativism and Universality of Human Rights: Indonesia Attitudes", published by JILS. Currently, she is elected to be General Secretary of Indonesia's Human Rights Lecturers Consortium (SEPAHAM-Indonesia) for the period of 2021 to 2026. For her further articles can be reach at <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-3848-1113> or at Scopus Author ID: 57221861823.